Ashish Rawat

01

The session offered self-reflection while providing genuine and strong takeaways. Some of the skills and values enhanced are much needed.

Arpit Pundir

02

Expressing yourself with friends and teammates can be helpful and confidence-boosting; interacting with new people is cool.

Suggestion: Increase the session duration and host more sessions.

Gagan Bisht

03

I learned about priorities, teamwork and dedication to a task. Patience and planning are important to execute a task.

Rakshya Rawat

04

Every opinion should be taken into consideration. Teamwork needs communication and understanding.

Suggestion: Allow more time for us to learn; a workshop might help us more.

Mrutunjoy Daas

05

Challenges in life can be unexpected, but how you handle them matters: panic or think rationally about your next step with a clear mind.

Suggestion: Conduct it on a larger scale.

Piyanshi Joshi

06

Importance of communication, planning before execution, setting priorities and the importance of convincing.

Himahi Devi

07

Be expressive and self-aware. Follow up with your teammates sometimes.

Jyoti Pant

08

Learn how to work as a team and learn something new.

Siddhi Goyal

09

A team cannot work without trust. We delay and fail to achieve objectives when belief is missing.

Suggestion: Share more insights and experience as an ex-Navy officer.

Simran Chauhan

10

Future challenges and problems will come, so we have to face them rather than run away.

Shreya Bhatt

11

I learned to check the areas I need to improve. It will definitely help my future self.

Suggestion: Everything was perfect and very helpful.

Jay Vardhan Singh Chauhan

12

Actions must align with your goal. Break complex or scary-looking problems into small, workable decisions. When smart work does not work, choose the hard way.

Suggestion: None. Loved it!

Hiwani Devi

13

The most valuable learning was how to work with team members and plan according to the situation: courage, leadership and teamwork.

Sushakshi Kakkar

14

It is important to accept your emotions and work on them; set a target and priority.

Suggestion: Include more such activities.

Anandey Sahu

15

Priority is a game changer in any situation, good or bad. Proper team discussion is important, with equality in decision-making.

Suggestion: Every student will connect with this beautiful session; it will be very helpful for them.
