Anjali

Expressing your feelings is important for moving beyond problems, and dividing goals into subtasks helps solve them.

01

Mehak Gautam

A clear plan is important. Clarity about the situation and how to solve the problem is important.

02

Parikshit Bisht

Expressiveness, the art of convincing and communication are important for any team or individual.

03

Vivek Rawat

A very insightful session. I recognised my weaker points and gained a clearer scope for improvement. Sessions like these are rare. Thank you for this amazing session!

04

Manya Singh

Break the task, and it is alright to ask for help when needed. I really enjoyed the activities and group work.

05

Cdt. Akansha Rana

The importance of planning, breaking down complex challenges, setting priorities and expressing emotions.

06

Suggestion: We were not given enough time to finish the first activity.

Riya Bhandari

The importance of expressing yourself and understanding the opinions of others.

07

Siddhika Jain

I learned how to tackle problems and understand my priorities - what comes first and what matters most. My takeaway is to be more expressive.

08

Cdt. Ayush Suman Gajogiya

The importance of expressing yourself.

09

Aakash Saharan
